Philosophy

Our philosophy is built around establishing business partnerships with corporations, who have recognised the importance and benefits of working with an employment services consultancy. Particularly one that will pro-actively market your values, vision and opportunities as if they were our own.

We have designed our operations, internal structure and services, to deliver maximum value to our clients when searching for staff both nationally and internationally, across all disciplines and at all levels.

Value For Money

At Blue Lynx, our employment services are among the most competitively priced in our branch. We operate an exclusive "no cure-no pay" policy, with no retainer fees and/or pre-payments required, thereby offering premium services with "on time, on budget" delivery. Blue Lynx will not bind a client to an exclusivity contract or demand preferred supplier status. Blue Lynx offers clients maximum flexibility for maximum results.

Outplacement

Our outplacement services offer you flexibility in budgetary commitment and planning, by providing you with both fixed and open duration project team members. Our professionally trained consultants are briefed to work quickly and accurately to provide you with a selection of suitably qualified/experienced candidates and our turn-around can be as little as a day!

Recruitment

For clients preferring a direct hire approach, recruitment offers a cost- and time-effective solution. The advantages: (a) No advertising expenditure; (b) No time-consuming CV selection procedure (only candidates matching your criteria will be introduced); (c) No lengthy interviews. All the above are included in our recruitment service, enabling HR Managers and staff to focus on core HR activities.

Executive Search

Executive Search is not only about finding your executive talent, it is also about the successful communication of your corporate values, vision and mission statements. Our national and international contacts reach a global resource of extremely talented professionals.

Our Focus

The keystone to our approach is our focus on people. This focus is resolute and begins at home; we recruit and develop talent in OUR company in the same way we would do in YOURS and we aim for people to want to work, not only with us, but for us.

Our Team

We consider recruitment as a career and not a sales job, our staff do not work on a commission basis and we pride ourselves in offering a professional service rather than a sales orientated approach to both candidates and clients.
